Higher Calling Camp is a camp like no other Catholic Youth Camp! It takes place 20 miles from McMinnville, Oregon at Camp Yamhill, which holds the Youth make new friends from all over the northwest.

largest ropes course in the Northwest.

Over a five day period the youth will learn about their faith, working with one another, and setting (and achieving) personal goals. Higher Calling Camp is unique in that the youth learn all this while hanging from a wire 60 feet in the air, balancing on a log on the ground, flying through the air on a zip line, and through many more exciting events.

Ages for camp participants: Entering 7th grade in the fall of 2010 or up to 2010 high school graduates.

Higher Calling Staff:

Camp Director: Mike Douglass,

Chaplain: Father Sean Weeks

Keynote Speaker: DougTooke

This is not your typical church camp.

Each day begins with mass and breakfast followed by three sessions on the ropes course. There is time for swimming, basketball, canoeing, Frisbee and just relaxing with friends. The camp provides three great meals. The evening includes middle school and high school break out sessions where the youth learn more about their Catholic faith and interact with other kids their age. This is followed by an energetic prayer session in the outdoor amphitheatre which includes music, presentations, prayer, sharing and fellowship!

The cost of the camp is $350 for registrations received prior to June 1st and $375 after June 1st. The last day to register for camp is July 15th. No applications will be accepted after that date. The registration cost covers all lodging, meals, activities, and a camp T-shirt.

A camp store is available for youth to buy snacks, soft drinks, t-shirts, and Christian music and merchandise.

Camp space is limited so register early!

Climbing the rock wall is just one of many activities youth will participate in.
